

What is Emergency Ride Home?

The Sonoma Emergency Ride Home (ERH) program supports commuters who use public transportation (bus or train), walk, bike, carpool, or vanpool to get to work or to college in Sonoma County by reimbursing rides when unexpected emergencies arise.

How does the program work?

If you have an emergency while at work or on campus, follow these three easy steps:

1. Arrange for a ride in a taxi, Uber, Lyft, rental car, train, or bus
2. Pay for the trip and keep the receipt
3. Submit a reimbursement form, certifying your agreement to the ERH Program Rules, a W-9 form, and ride receipt to SonomaERH@scta.ca.gov within 30 days of your trip to

What is a qualifying emergency?

- ✓ Illness or crisis of participant or immediate family member, including domestic partner
- ✓ Carpool or vanpool driver leaves early due to emergency or ride is unavailable due to vehicle breakdown or mishap
- ✓ Bicycle stolen or not able to be repaired at work site/campus
- ✓ Unscheduled mandatory overtime

Who can use ERH?

You are eligible to use ERH if you commute to work or college in Sonoma County and use an alternative transportation option such as public transit (bus or train), carpool, vanpool, bicycle, or walk on the day of the qualifying emergency.
